

Minutes for the January 18, 2011 Meeting of the Catharine Township Board of Supervisors

The board of supervisors for Catharine Township met on Tuesday, January 18, 2011, at the Catharine Township office. The meeting was called to order by Chairman Ralph Rispoli Jr. Those in attendance were the following: David Bigelow Sr., Ralph Rispoli Jr., Barry Wyland, all of Catharine Township; Perry Clapper, Williamsburg Municipal Authority; John Clabaugh and Jim Young, Stiffler and McGraw; Allen Gibboney, Solicitor for Catharine Township.

Order of Business was as follows: Building plans for the sewage sight was explained and reviewed. Explanation of path to get into and out of the facility was reviewed. It was proposed by John Clabaugh, that Catharine Township trade property at each end of the property. This meaning that each owner would receive the same amount of real estate in response for the trade.

Attorney Gibboney expressed his counsel, on the ways that the agreement would work positively for all that is involved. It is the belief for all concerned, that this is a project that is very advantageous to the community.

Barry Wyland made a motion to table the discussion and Ralph Rispoli Jr. second the motion as being referred to as proposed ordinance 61. The motion unanimously passed.

In other business, Barry Wyland was designated to attend the informational meeting by the borough on possible proposed police protection by Williamsburg Borough Police. In other business, Wayne Grove was appointed assistant road master, with Barry Wyland making the motion and Ralph Rispoli Jr. second the motion. The motion passed unanimously.

There was a motion from Barry Wyland to adjourn the meeting with David Bigelow Sr, second the motion. The next meeting will be held on Monday, February 7, 2011 at 6:00p.m.

Respectfully submitted by David Bigelow
