Due to no recent presentation the issue of pursuing police protection for the township has been tabled.

Attorney Allen Gibboney would like to meet with the supervisors and discuss the proposition of the merger of a portion of land between the Williamsburg Borough and Catharine Township in the near future.

New Buisness

Barrie will be setting up a mailbox soon along Yellow Springs Drive for the office building. The address is 1229 Recreation Drive but it would be easier for the carrier to deliver as there are other mailboxes closer on Yellow Springs Drive that are closer to the office building. The supervisors got the approval from the post office.

Road master Barrie Wyland will be having a meeting with the road workers to go over policies and training on Thursday, November 9, 2010.

The supervisors received a letter from Dave Imler concerning filing liens against residents who did not pay their taxes. Barrie made a motion to have Allen work with Dave directly on filing the requests and if Dave has requests regarding this matter that the supervisors give him the authority to contact Allen to get them filed as soon as possible.
